SEBASTIAN MONEY RETURNS TO HAVANA

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 5.—Capt. Edward Murphy, commander of the last steamer Commodore, Stephen Crane, the novelist, C. B. Montgomery, cook, and William Higgins, an officer, with four Cubans, arrived here from Dayton tonight. From the survivors it is learned that the men of the Commodore left the ship in four boat loads. Twelve Cubans embarked in the first, four more in the second, seven Americans in the third, and four including Capt. Murphy, Crane, Higgins and Montgomery in the fourth. The first three were life boats, the last a ten foot dingy. The men in the third boat lingered in the neighborhood of the sinking steamer, and for some reason the small boat fouled and sank. The men were ordered to swim back to the steamer where they improvised a raft. This the captain attempted to tow to shore, fourteen miles away. Just as they started it was observed that a negro on the raft was drawing himself along the tow line to the dingy. The captain realized that this meant death to all and he ordered the raft cut adrift. He shouted to the men to return to the vessel, which they attempted to do, but when near the Commodore it gave a lurch, sank, and the men on the raft were drawn down to the vortex and did not rise again. They were James R. Egan, engineer; E. H. Bitter, assistant engineer; Frank Grain, mate; W. A. Smith, fireman; Muelito Leon, Cuban pilot and guide; and James Franklin and Murray Noble, two colored firemen.

THE AMERICAN CITIZENS

Who are Imprisoned in Spanish Prisons to be Looked After.

M. Olney, Secretary of State, has sent an order to United States Consul General Lee to visit Henry Delgado, the correspondent of the New York Mail and Express, who was captured as a political prisoner, and, being sick, is confined in the hospital of San Ambrose. Dr. Burgess, physician to the United States Consul General, having obtained permission from the government, visited Mr. Delgado today and found the condition of the patient slightly improved.

It is understood that the prisoner Oscar Cepeda will be transferred from Matanzas to the Canales for treatment in Havana at the request of Gen. Lee.

There is a rumor current here that Senator John Sherman, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, is expected in Havana.

FIGHTING ON THE ISLAND.

As I said, the Havana Reports Give the Insurgents the Worst of It.

Havana, Jan. 4.—The Spanish column under Maj. Benito met the insurgent band, under the leaders Arango, Raul Campa Florida, and Raul Garcia, near Campo Florida. The insurgents numbered 2,000, and among them were seen 200 negroes and men not known in that vicinity. A pursuit was immediately commenced, and Maj. Benito had several engagements. At the same time the column of Col. Aguilera, from Jaguay, encountered the insurgents. The firing was kept up for five hours. At Sagrera the insurgents left thirty-eight killed, with their arms. The Spanish had an officer and fourteen soldiers wounded.

SENATOR MONEY'S ABSENCE

Caused Anxiety to His Friends, But He Was Safe All the While.

Havana, Jan. 5.—Senator Money, of Mississippi, upon his return to Havana, said that he had been in the interior on business of a wholly private character. He saw certain estates, he said, with a view to investment. He was not molested by the government, and he did not see any insurgents. He is dining tonight with Consul General Lee and Mr. Walter B. Barker, United States Consul at Sagrera. The Grand Jury here for consultation with Gen. Lee.

Mr. Money was absent several days, and there was some anxiety among his friends as nothing could be heard from him.

IN A FEW DAYS.

The Spanish Government Hired of Weyler's Very Poor Military Work.

New York, Jan. 5.—News has been received by the Cuban Junta from Washington to the effect that the Spanish government has positively refused to recall Capt. Gen. Weyler.

General Primo de Rivera. It is said, will succeed General Weyler in Cuba. He is a captain general in the SPANISH ARMY, AND IN FAVOR OF THE CANOVAS GOVERNMENT.

Minister Taylor, it is said, informed Secretary Olney several days ago that the authorities at Madrid were on the point of relieving Gen. Weyler of his command in Cuba, and of appointing as his successor Capt. Gen. Rivera.

BUT NOT PROBABLE.

Reports That Gomez and Other Cuban Leaders Will "Possibly" Surrender.

Madrid, Jan. 5.—Private telegrams received here from Havana say it is possible that Maximiliano Gomez and other influential Cubans will surrender to the Spanish authorities.

Consulate to Confer With Gen. Lee. Havana, Jan. 5.—It is reported that all the United States Consulate in Cuba will successively come to Havana for a conference with Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, the Consul General.

CORBETT AND FITZSIMMONS SIGN.

The Articles Entered into in New York Yesterday.

Large Stakes Forfeited by Stuart if He Does Not Bring Off the Mill March 17.

New York, Jan. 5.—Just now the only hitch which seems possible to prevent the meeting of Corbett and Fitzsimmons in the ring will be the failure of Dan Stuart, of Texas, to secure a place where the two heavyweights will settle the long-looked-for contest.

On December 17 James J. Corbett affixed his signature to the articles of agreement drawn up by Dan A. Stuart, and the signing of the articles was witnessed by "Parson" Davies, of Chicago. This afternoon Bob Fitzsimmons, accompanied by his manager, met Dan Stuart at a Jersey City hotel and in the presence of a number of well-known sporting men and representatives of the press, Fitzsimmons affixed his signature immediately underneath that of Corbett on the articles.

The articles call for a purse of $15,000, to be given to the winner, and each of the principals is to pay $2,000 in the hands of a stakeholder to guarantee their appearance in the ring, the one failing to live up to his agreement to forfeit to the other and Dan A. Stuart. As a guarantee of good faith Stuart agrees to post $5,000 with a stakeholder, to be divided equally between Corbett and Fitzsimmons, if he (Stuart) fails to carry out the provisions incorporated in the agreement. Stuart further agrees to pay the remainder of the purse ($10,000) in the hands of the stakeholder thirty days prior to the date of the contest, and that $10,000 be forfeited to Corbett and Fitzsimmons if Stuart fails to bring off the contest on March 17.

Five-ounce gloves are to be used. George Siler, of Chicago, is agreed upon as referee, and Fitzsimmons decided that Al Smith, of New York, was satisfactory stakeholder as far as he was concerned.

Stuart refused to say where he expected to bring the mill off, but the articles called for him to notify the principals of the place one month prior to the date of the proposed contest. Fitzsimmons' right hand was bandaged from the effects of his fight with Sharkey, when he received an injury to one of his knuckles in delivering a blow. Julian, his manager, would not say where or when Fitzsimmons would go into training, as he had not as yet made arrangements.

STORM IN THE NORTHWEST.

Blizzard the Worst Known for Ten Years or More.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—The storm which has been raging for the last seventy hours in the northwest has not increased in severity, save perhaps in Iowa, and the Signal Service in this city, which runs affairs generally in the Northern Mississippi valley, is upon record as declaring that within a short time the storm will "probably abate." The wind has been high throughout the storm and in some instances has shown remarkable pertinacity in clinging to the high figures, it having for thirty-six hours kept up a 42-mile per hour gale at Huron, S. D.

The falling temperature is general in the lake region and Upper Mississippi valley, but there has been no heavy fall of snow east of Iowa. In Iowa the fall of sleet and snow has been very heavy and the reports tonight indicate lower temperature and more snow.

In Western Kansas there has been much trouble because of the snow piling up across the tracks, and trains have been held at eating stations until the tracks can be cleared.

The storm is practically over in this locality and the sky is clearing. Nebraska has had about the same experience, and is under drifts anywhere from two to ten feet high.

Something Dropped. The thermometer hovered about the freezing point all day. There were indications of snow early in the forenoon, but those disappeared later in the day and the sun came out. This was one of the coldest days of the season.

Licensed to Marry. Sydney Bunley and Miss Minnie E. Peyton of the county, were licensed to marry today. The marriage will take place tomorrow at the home of the bride.

WILL ABDICATE

Will Queen Victoria in Favor of Prince of Wales.

THREE WEALTHY MEN SUICIDE.

Col. John Hay to be Minister at the Court of St. James.

MINISTER WILLIS DYING IN HAVANA.

London, Jan. 5.—The Westminster Gazette is authority for the report that Queen Victoria will abdicate in favor of her son the Prince of Wales.

Queen Victoria's reign has already exceeded that of George III, the longest previous reign in the history of the nation. The infirmities of advancing years are the only reasons for her desire to relinquish the throne.

Hay for Minister to England.

Washington, Jan. 5.—It is given out as a straight tip that Col. John Hay has been decided on as Minister to England under the McKinley administration.

Laughlin Gives Up.

Covington, Ky., Jan. 5.—Laughlin, the confederate officer, has given up all hope of a reprieve and is prepared to meet his fate on Saturday. He claims to have seen his wife in a vision and that he will meet her in heaven.

An Obstinate Judge.

Morehead, Ky., Jan. 5.—A most animated fight has been in progress here for some time between the saloon and anti-saloon elements. A case involving the right to sell liquor which Esch Pratt was president up to the time of his death, was discovered to be short in his accounts to the amount of about $60,000 today.

Abolish 10 o'clock this morning Mr. Cornus was notified of "his discovery and left the bank."

At 11 o'clock this afternoon his dead body was found in the dock pond at Dred Hill Park. He had committed suicide by drowning.

THEY FALL OUT.

Threatened Trouble Between the School Board and Council.

President Lang Says No Teacher Will Be Put in the New Mechanic School.

There is a probability of a row between the board of education and city council over the Mechanic school house.

The children in Mechanic school have long been in need of a public school, the nearest one being half a mile or more away. For this reason the district school building was negotiated for.

Last night at a meeting of the council when the matter of purchasing the school building from the trustees at a cost of $311, there was strong objection to its purchase by the city.

Councilman Livingston said the city did not have the money to spare and the school board had more than it needed, but it was afterwards agreed that the city purchase the building and deed it at some future time to the school board and take the amount from the school fund.

The building may prove of little immediate advantage to the city, however. President Lang, of the school board, said this morning that most emphatically the board will not put any teacher in this year, and

POLICE NEWS.

Judge Sanders Tried Several Cases Today.

BREACHES OF PEACE MOSTLY.

Madame Dixon Gets Off Light. Crazy Man Sent to Jail.

OFFICER SINGERY ACTING CHIEF.

St. Shelby and Amanda McGehee, colored, were arraigned in Judge Sanders' court this morning on an immorality charge. Shelby is the one who bit Richard Caldwell's ear off several months since. Both pleaded not guilty. Officer Senger testified that he found them in a room together at 5 o'clock Sunday morning. There were three or four others in the room, but the women were nude. She said she didn't know Shelby, was there. Both still pleaded not guilty, but a fine of $20 and costs was assessed against them. Judge Sanders took occasion to illustrate the law.

"There was a man who used to give the police a great deal of trouble," he said. "One day he got a turkey on market without paying for it, and sold it, claiming it to be his own. When he was arrested and brought up he laughed it off and said 'shucks, Sanders can't do anything with me, it's all a breach of trust.' It happened though that the court of appeals decided that a person didn't have to use any diligence in purchasing a thing in order to ascertain if it belonged to the one who sold it. This made the offense obtaining money by false pretenses. So when I read the law to the defendant, he looked surprised and said: 'By G—, they've found some new law; I'm in it this time.' He was sent to the penitentiary."

"Now that is the way in this immorality case," explained the judge. "If a man and woman are found together in a room at that time of the night, the law presumes the rest. Let the judgment stand."

Madame Frankie Dixon, colored, charged with malicious cutting, was fined $15 and costs for a lesser offense by Judge Sanders this morning.

She cut Mary Johnson about a week ago in the arm, and claimed it was done in self-defense.

The case against Laura Johnson, colored, charged with using foul language towards Mrs. Cantrell, of Third and Monroe, was dismissed this morning, and the defendant was recognized in the sum of $100 for good behavior.

The Cohen, the Second street merchant, was fined $5 and costs in the police court this morning for using abusive language toward Charles Michael. He pleaded guilty.

Aard Franklin, head waiter at the Palmer, was arraigned on a charge of throwing a stone at Will Campbell and drawing a spittoon on George House, a waiter at Lucy Riley's house, near Jefferson and Fourth. The trouble originated between Franklin and House, and the Riley woman attempted to keep Franklin from striking him. He was fined $10 and costs.

The crazy railroad darkey picked up yesterday was ordered committed to jail by Judge Sanders, until the authorities can take some action towards inquiring into his sanity. He has never spoken since he was taken in, and no one knows his name, nor where he lives, although it is supposed he hails from Louisville. He makes all kinds of railroad signals with his hands, and left the court room giving a signal with an imaginary lantern to clear the track.

Jim Powers, of Mechanicburg, was arrested at Oaks yesterday afternoon by Constable McKee, on a charge of assaulting Wm Reel. He claims he can prove an alibi.

Officer Henry Singery is acting as chief until Mayor Yeter appoints a new policeman in the place of Chief Hall, deceased yesterday. The mayor stated last night that he would not be ready to make an appointment perhaps for several days.

Constable Miles Futrell has provided another bond. A few days ago Chief Hall petitioned the court to release him. Constable Futrell now has another bond, which he will present as soon as County Judge Thomas is able to hold court.

Quiet coughing is easy enough if you know how to do it. The best way to quit is to take one dose of Dr. Bell's Pipe Tar Mixture. Summer coughs, lung coughs, winter coughs, bronchial coughs or any other kind of a cough or cold is speedily cured by the use of this remedy. Children love it. Old people like it.
